Crepe de Chine and Chiffon Waists

REPE DE CHINE is easily the daintiest and most desirable silk of which waists are fashioned at the present. Its popularity shows no signs of diminishing, but rather increases. The soft and fluffy effect and delightful style created by this material is everywhere received with universal approval.

Crepe de Chine Waists at $5.75.

One model is a large figured effect, with Mandarin sleeves in three-quarter length, having a vest effect of self and plain creps de chine, and hemstitched seams. The other style is stenciled large flowers on white ground with a vest of organdy and a Medici collar. Long stenciled lapels, three-quarter sleeves, and hemstitched seams are features of this model.

Chiffon Waists at $10.00.

Plain peach-colored chiffon over plain and flowered foun-dation, forming a vest in the front by a new method of handling the material. The Medici collar is of shadow lace, and shadow lace ruffles edge the puffed cuff of three-quarter sleeves.

THE MINARET GIRDLE AND OTHER NOVELTY STYLES

The elaboration below the waistline and around the hips in women's styles is responsible for some beautiful new modes in girdles, of a novel character.

The Minaret Girdle, of black satin, with one or two ruffles. Some ar croad and shirred and have bow in front; others are shirred on elastic and have the bow in front.

$3.00 and $4.00 each.

Roman-striped Girdles, shirred, with bow in front.
